

PHILIP CIMO FACES A JURY

Prisoner Indicted on Charge of Murdering Marie Burzotto

JURY WAS DRAWN THURSDAY

District Attorney Outlines Commonwealth's Evidence — Brief History of the Shooting to Death of Pretty Italian Girl in Clearfield on Sunday March 8 of the Present Year.

The crime for which Philip Cimo is now being tried was the shooting to death of Marie Burzotto. Both these people were Italians. Cimo had been in this country for some time, but Marie came to Clearfield but a few weeks prior to her death. It was claimed by Cimo that Marie had promised to marry him before she came to the United States and that, relying on this promise, he had sent her money enough to pay her passage over the sea and her railroad fare to Clearfield. He had also expended considerable money in buying furniture with which he expected to furnish a home for himself and his wife.

Saw a Handsomer Man.

After Marie had arrived in New York it is said that she met other Italian men and that she saw one whom she thought she liked better than she did Cimo. At any rate, after she reached Clearfield she resolutely refused to marry Cimo. Philip pleaded with her to keep her word, but in vain. She declined to give any reason for her change of mind, but married Philip she would not.

That the refusal of the girl he loved and whom he believed had loved him while she was in Italy preyed upon the mind of Cimo, there is no doubt. Finally, on the fateful Sunday, March 8, 1914, Philip made a last appeal to the girl, and upon her persisting in rejecting his love, he shot her, the bullet entering her left side. She died of her wound Monday afternoon, March 9 at the hospital.

Tried to Commit Suicide.

The tragedy which took place in the home of Frank Cimo, a brother of Philip, on South Third street, in Clearfield, was aired before the coroner. After he had shot the girl Cimo fired a bullet into his neck, inflicting a wound which at first was thought to be mortal. He was taken to the hospital, where he recovered sufficiently to be removed to the county jail to await his trial.

It is probable that letters written to Cimo by the girl while she was still in Italy will be offered in evidence in the trial of Cimo. These letters are said to breathe a strong love for the present prisoner, and gave no indication of her changing her mind relative to the wedding so ardently desired by Cimo.

The Jury Selected.

The trial of Philip Cimo began late Thursday afternoon, the drawing of a jury occupying the time until court adjourned at 6 o'clock.

The following jurymen were selected to hear the evidence and render a verdict in accordance therewith:

J. P. Irwin, lumber dealer, Curwensville.

J. R. Scott, laborer, Penn.

E. B. McAllister, electrician, DuBois.

James Gray, laborer, Morris.

Austin Davis, farmer, Decatur.

David H. Hartman, farmer, Decatur.

John Bowman, farmer, Knox.

J. A. Adams, farmer, Beccaria.

Frank Leach, laborer, Curwensville.

Harry Leathers, roller, Curwensville.

William Valmont, laborer, Cooper.

Fred Schenck, laborer, Clearfield.

The district attorney is assisted by A. M. Liveright and W. I. Swoope, while the prisoner's interests are looked after by Messrs. Cole and Miller.

The Trial Begins.

This morning, after court was called, Attorney Welch addressed the jury, giving a brief history of the case and stating what the commonwealth expected to prove by its witnesses.

The first witness called was Civil Engineer E. W. Hess, who identified the map he had made of the scene of the shooting and described the situation of the interior of the Frank Cimo house. From a question put to Mr. Hess by Mr. Cole as to the situation of the house and the location of the outside stairway, it is probable that the defense will try to have the jury infer that somebody from the outside of the house had entered and shot both Philip Cimo and Marie Burzotto.

Testimony of Physicians.

Both as a physician and as coroner Dr. J. I. Polham, of DuBois, and Dr. J. Waterworth, of Clearfield, who was called to the Cimo home to attend the wounded man and girl, explained the nature of the wounds sustained by Philip and Marie. Both physicians declared that the death of Marie Burzotto was caused by the bullet which had been fired into her body.

Mrs. Frank Cimo, wife of the man who lives in the Third street house in which the shooting occurred, was called to the stand shortly after 10 this morning and gave her story of what she knew of the affair.

Philip Cimo, freshly shaved, presented a much more creditable appearance this morning than he did on the day when he appeared in court to ask that counsel be assigned to defend him.

Frank Cimo and wife, Constable T. W. Moore, Joe Lehman and Mrs. Sadito were on the witness stand this morning and told what they knew of the shooting.

STRIKERS AND GUARDS SURRENDER ARMS

No More Disorder Expected in Colorado Mines.

Trinidad, Colo., May 8.—Nine officials at Tabasco, Berwind, Hastings, Delagua, Forbes, Huertano and Aguilar, practically all the mines in the Ludlow district, were notified by the executive officers of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company and the Victor American Fuel company to deliver up all arms on their premises to the federal troops upon demand. The guns had been stacked, the mine officers said, since the arrival of federal troops at the several properties and the guards discharged from further duty.

Colonel Lockett, in command of the federal troops in this district, had expected to complete the disarmament of mine guards in Las Animas and Huertano counties, but owing to the delayed arrival of a portion of the Eleventh cavalry regiment from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., it was thought probable the completion of this work would not be reached for another day. Immediately following will come the proclamation to the strikers setting forth the place and time to deliver their arms to the federal authorities.

The number of guns in possession of the strikers is variously estimated at from 500 to 1,200. The mine owners were said to have possessed eight machine guns and an unknown number of rifles and small arms.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLER CAUGHT

Held in Washington Charged With $24,000 Theft by New York Firm.

Washington, May 8.—A police chase across half the continent ended here in the arrest of Sidney B. Harrison, thirty-three years old, charged with embezzling $24,000 while local manager for N. L. Carpenter & Co., New York, stock brokers.

He denied the charge, but the police said he admitted eluding officers at Pittsburgh and St. Louis since he was captured on Dec. 19.

Harrison was located at Virginia Village, across the Potomac river, hauled out of bed and hustled to Washington without use of requisition papers. He professed ignorance of the whereabouts of Alice E. Malone, his assistant, who disappeared simultaneously with him and who is charged with embezzling $8,000.

Washington, May 8.—Charge d'Affaires Nelson O'Shaughnessy of the United States embassy in the City of Mexico arrived here. No arrangements had been made for him to see President Wilson, whose time was occupied with the wedding of his daughter, Miss Eleanor Wilson, to Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy conferred with Bryan and may call upon the mediators later in the week.

Sees Entire Northern Mexico
In Constitutionalists' Hands.

HUERTA GROWING WEAKER.

Reports From Mexico City Show That His Rule Is Rapidly Crumbling. United States Peace Envoys Not Selected, Although Many Names Have Been Suggested.

Washington, May 8.—Reports of almost continuous Constitutional success in northern Mexico cleared the atmosphere materially so far as the United States is concerned.

The president and his advisers believe that before the A. B. C. mediators begin their work at Niagara Falls, Ont., Carranza will hold the entire north. They are equally confident that so soon as this condition is brought about Huerta will either eliminate himself or be eliminated by the men who in the past have supported him.

If Huerta can be eliminated there is not an official here familiar with the entire Mexican situation who doubts that a common ground could be quickly found on which all of the warring factions in Mexico would be brought together.

Score Considered as Envoys.

Meanwhile the administration is carefully considering its representation at the Niagara Falls conference. Fully a score of names have been suggested to the president. However, until it is definitely settled whether there is to be one or three representatives a selection will not be made.

At present it is considered almost certain that if Secretary Lane of the interior can arrange the business of his office he will be chosen. Lane has been a strenuous advocate of quick action with Mexico, having insisted all along that Huerta was "bluffing in every move" and that he would get out in a hurry if his bluff was "called."

The mediators have decided that there is little more they can do until they get to Canada. They have soundly out Huerta and his representatives

THE CRIMINAL LIST

End of Trials of Cases and Jurors Sent Home.

The jury in the case in which Tom Daley was tried for the alleged robbery of a Curwensville store returned a verdict of not guilty yesterday afternoon. Daley is held on another indictment of a similar character on information of a Graupman merchant.

The grand jury ignored the bill of indictment against William Goss, accused of maintaining a disorderly house at his Third street bowling alley. County for costs.

RESCUE SHIP LANDS

SURVIVORS AT BOSTON

Explosion on Columbian Did Not Come From Boilers.

Boston, May 8.—The Cunard liner Franconia, bringing thirteen survivors and the body of Chief Steward Matthews of the ill-fated Leyland liner Columbian, burned at sea off Cape Race, docked at the Cunard piers in East Boston.

Most of those rescued were in a serious condition from burns and exposure and have been under the care of the Franconia's hospital staff since being picked up.

Nothing has yet been heard from the third boat, containing the first and second officers of the Columbian and seventeen men, which was the first boat to be put overboard from the burning ship. Search is still being kept up for the frail craft by several steamships, but the weather off Cape Race and Sabie Island is foggy and thick, and the fate of the men is problematical.

Most of those rescued were foreigners and unable to speak English, but Wireless Operators James Drobun and Thomas Connor declared the fire burst upon them suddenly just at midnight on Sunday night. In their opinion the first explosion was caused by spontaneous combustion.

Only Fifty Guests at Fourteenth
White House Wedding.

HONEYMOON PLANS SECRET.

Ceremony Performed in Historic Blue Room, Thus Breaking Century Old Custom—All Other Weddings Held in East Room—Bride Her Father's Chum—Many Handsome Gifts.

Washington, May 8.—Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the president and the second bride of the Wilson administration's first fourteen months of tenure, was married at 6 o'clock last evening to Secretary of the Treasury William Gibbs McAdoo.

The ceremony was performed in the historic blue room of the White House, the apartment usually set aside for the exclusively ceremonial functions of an official or semi-official character. Miss Eleanor was the first daughter of a president to be married in the blue room. All others heretofore have been wed in the lofty and more commodious east room.

The reason for holding the wedding in the smaller room was that it was semiprivate in character. The smallest wedding company ever gathered in the White House—there were less than fifty persons present—was the reason for the change from this century old practice.

Bride Enters With Her Father.

The bride entered the room prepared for the wedding ceremony on the arm of her father. She was preceded by her two sisters, Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the president, attending her as maid of honor, and Mrs. Frances Bowles Sayre as matron of honor.

Miss Wilson's wedding gown was of ivory satin embellished with rare old point lace. The bodice was of draped effect of the satin made in surplice fashion, with a V shaped neck finished with folds of white tulle. The sleeves were of long mousseline lace and also of tulle. The lace was draped gracefully over the right shoulder to the left side at the waist line, where it

STEAMSHIP BURNS, BUT CREW ESCAPES

Steel Vessel Total Loss in Waters of Lake Erie.

Erie, Pa., May 8.—The steel freight steamship City of Rome, Buffalo to Toledo, was burned to the water's edge off Ripley, N. Y.

The crew escaped in boats.

The fire was discovered between decks by John McManama, mate, of Cleveland, and all hands were summoned to fight the flames, which gained rapid headway and soon were beyond control. After two hours' struggle, in which the crew was hampered by the dense smoke and the heated deck plates, Captain William Dunn gave orders to beach the vessel.

Thomas Cunningham of Milwaukee, the chief engineer, stuck to his post until the ship grounded on the soft sands of Ripley beach. The crew then made its way to shore in the lifeboats. The vessel is a total loss.

The City of Rome left Buffalo light for Toledo, where she was to load coal for Milwaukee. She was a steel steamship of 3,900 gross tons, 268 feet long and carried a crew of sixteen men. The vessel was owned by James Mitchell of Cleveland.

STATEMENT CORRECTED

President Kerr's Stand on the Water Works Proposition

Editor the Progress:

This letter is written to correct misstatements made in your issue of May 7, concerning both council and the undersigned. In the first place, there was no action taken by council to indicate that it favored "taking the water company into court," and the writer believes that it does not favor such action. The water company has made such expensive and unsatisfactory proceeding entirely unnecessary by frankly opening its books to the committee of council, and by an offer to audit jointly with council, which council could not well refuse if it also wishes to deal fairly. The writer certainly does not favor or any such court procedure and did not make any statements which could have been so construed. In fact, all the statements made by the undersigned on this subject were exactly opposed to what you have credited to him in your article.

In justice to all parties concerned will you kindly give this equal prominence with your article of last night?

Yours very truly,

FREDERICK B. KERR.

TWO BOYS ROBBED BY TWO HOBOS

Tramps Came to Clearfield on
N. Y. C. Freight, but Escaped

While traveling on a freight train coming toward Clearfield Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock, two Polish boys were robbed by tramps. The scene of the robbery was near Birch Island, and the boys and the two tramps who robbed them were riding on Lake Shore No. 7, which arrived here at 6 o'clock Thursday evening.

On the train was a large number of tramps, and two of these attacked the Polish boys, robbing them of two watches and $7.00 in money. Word was sent to Clearfield to be on watch for the robbers, but the two men got off the train at Fulton's tunnel. When Chief of Police McHenry and his posse arrived at the N. Y. C. yards they found seventeen tramps stealing a ride. A search for the two robbers was futile. Later it was learned that the two men had come to Clearfield, but a close search of the yards and the brick yards, which lasted until 3 o'clock this morning failed to unearth the robbers.

MAKES A BIG HIT

Cormican Vaudeville Company Please Local Theatre Goers.

A mighty clever, clean show is the James Cormican Vaudeville company at the new opera house, which opened its three nights' engagement last night to a large audience. The show opens with Miss Mary Balcar and company in the comedy act, "The Fall Guy" which was well received.

The cute little lady Miss Bertha Ness, was the musical part of the bill. She made a big impression with her wide talents. Mr. Cormican appeared in "The Unexpected," a bright one-act comedy. His act was a distinct hit.

Henry Roquemore, completed a well balanced bill of vaudeville, in a singing and talking act, which was given a big reception. Tonight, tomorrow matinee and tomorrow evening, the Cormican players will be seen in different acts. Entire program will be changed each show.

Who Was Daffydownilly?

Mother Goose, like all world poets, never told half she knew. Poetess laureate of the English speaking nursery, her most complete achievements in rhyme are yet of an incompleteness that insure us against satiety. In those shreds and patches of verse, those isolated couplets and quatrains suggesting so much and saying so little, we perceive the promise of that perfected art foreshadowed in the unfinished tales of a Dickens and a Stevenson.

Rudyard Kipling, deliberately fashioning metrical fragments for preludes to his Indian tales, struck a note seldom sustained in his completed compositions.

Who was Daffydownilly, and what did she do when she came to town? Was Jumping Joan flesh, fairy or symbol? Would we laugh or cry did we understand the fantastic apparition of Banbury Cross? Why did Margery Daw sell her bed to lie upon straw, and was there not something behind the appearance of her purely eccentric depravity?—W. T. Varied in Century.

A CURFEW NEEDED

Children Misconduct Themselves on Street at Night.

Editor of Progress:—I have noticed in your paper lately articles relating to the need of a curfew law in Clearfield. I wish to say that if not a curfew law at least an officer or two are needed in the West End to maintain order. One evening lately several ladies and young men took advantage of the nice weather to take a walk after church. They went through East End and walked out the state road to the tile plant, when some boys, about 11 and 12 years of age who were following them, started calling the most insulting things possible after them. Is it the fault of the parents? Do the boys become accustomed to such talk in the homes. May 7.

WHY?

Why is the gossip permitted to destroy the character of other people without being stricken down for
her wickedness?

Good evening! If thy neighbor's
hen offend thee pluck her head off

CURFEW LAW NEEDED.

Citizens who keep in touch with conditions in Clearfield are of the opinion that a curfew law is badly needed in this town. Judging from the large number of children of tender age who roam the streets at late
as eleven o'clock at night, often mingling with older persons from whom they imbibed lessons of a harmful nature, a curfew law to replace the careless authority of parents, is badly needed.

There is scarcely a night of the week upon which crowds of small
boys are not to be seen on the street.
Some of these boys are in bad company and unless some restraining guardianship is thrown about them
they will eventually become degenerates. Listening to the obscene language of older persons and learning
to swear and use foul language the education of the small boy in town
is not the kind which instructs in
good citizenship.

Parents of children whose ages
range from twelve to sixteen are apparently indifferent to the moral welfare of their sons. It is, therefore,
the duty of the municipal authorities
to act as the guardians of the young boys of Clearfield. Other towns and cities find that with a curfew
law in operation the boys and girls
are taught to have respect for regulations which are promulgated to save them from moral ruin. With a curfew
law in force in Clearfield it would be possible for older citizens to pass
along the streets between the hours
of nine and eleven o'clock without encountering crowds of youngsters engaged in conduct of a reprehensible
character.

BY WHAT METHOD?

Whether or not those citizens who
are opposed to having two expert accountants, one employed by the water company and one by the borough, investigate the books and accounts of the Clearfield Water company in order to ascertain the cost of construction of the works, would be satisfied with the result of any proceeding in the case cannot be told. The former method of trying to learn the desired
facts would be more expeditious
than would legal proceedings which would spread out over a number of years. Council, therefore wishes to avoid court proceedings if possible.

In the meantime, if borough council
can prevent the water company in installing meters in the homes of the people such action would be even more beneficial to water consumers
than would municipal ownership of the water plant. Whether or not the water company is upon the plan to install meters costing from forty to fifty thousand dollars in order to increase the item of operation of the plant, the proposition to do so will have its effect upon the minds of the taxpayers when they come to vote in favor of the borough acquiring the plant.

With the prospect that Colonel Roosevelt will visit Clearfield on the Fourth of July it is incumbent upon
the citizens to begin preparing to pay honor to the distinguished guest.

Doesn't seem as if so many dogs
had been killed this spring, does it?

No change that the railroads might make in their schedules would give Clearfield worse passenger train service than the town now enjoys.

However, there are some people in this town who have not yet cleaned
up their premises.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers
you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and
proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys
and irritate the entire urinary tract.
Keep your kidneys clean like you
keep your bowels clean, by flushing
them with a mild, harmless salts
which removes the body's urinous
waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 gallons of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance
of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much, also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad
Salt. Take a tablespoonful in a glass
of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and
has been used for generations to clean
and stimulate clogged kidneys, also
to neutralize the acids in urine so
it is no longer a source of irritation,
thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salt is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent
lithia water drink which everyone
should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try
this also keep up the water drinking
and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

HON. EMORY A. WALLING

Candidate is a Great Lawyer and
a Great Judge.

While practicing law at Erie, Hon
Emory A Walling became known as one of the leading attorneys in his part of the state. No one stood higher or had a more extensive practice.
Selhom has a candidate for judicial office been able to present such a record at the bar as can Judge Wall-

ing. And his seventeen years of service as president judge of the Erie
district has given him a reputation
and record equal to any in the commonwealth.

So the north part of the state, being at present without a representative in that court, presents Emory A Walling as its candidate for judge of
supreme court, and in so doing calls
attention to the fact that he is both
a great lawyer and a great judge.—Adv

The little tailor of the story books, sitting cross-legged on his bench, snipped and stitched and pressed—making a thousand motions to do what could better be done by a hundred, and never doing the same thing twice in the same way.

He never bothered himself with the question of whether or not his clothes were better and better clothes with time.

Did you know before why we sell Clothcraft Clothes?

You have likely seen this ad, of which we produce a part, in The Saturday Evening Post or one of the leading Farm Papers.

This is in many ways one of the most remarkable clothing advertisements that have ever appeared, as it tells cold, hard facts, about the making of clothes, which have never been publicly told before.

We know how important the Scientific tailoring of Clothcraft Clothes is and why no other clothes have ever met with such success. Naturally we want you to know these facts, as it proves our judgment in offering this line to you.

To our store policy of giving you the best values of the markets, Clothcraft Clothes link up perfectly, whether it is the line of beautiful varied patterns at $10 to $20 or the No. 5130 Blue Serge Special at $15.

There is one thing that we can add to this, in clothing or any of the things men wear, we do more than sell you goods. We give you service, the benefit of our knowledge of correct things for men.

Whatever we sell must give satisfaction; the sale is not complete until this is the fact.

WANT MYSTERY SOLVED
Kane Citizens Ask "Ita" to Explain Boy's Disappearance.

During the past winter "Ita", the mentalist, appeared at the Temple theatre, Kane, Pa. Kane was slow to appreciate what remarkable things this young woman can do, and as a result after she left for her next town they got together and decided that she would be the proper person to unravel the mysterious disappearance of four years ago of the little Adams boy. A huge petition signed by over 500 male voters, and the town's best citizens was sent to "Ita" at Kittanning, by a committee, who urged that she return to Kane and undertake the case. This petition will be displayed at the opera house next Monday and shows that if a town like Kane shows this much appreciation of Ita's work her demonstrations at the local opera house next week will be well worth watching. Ita goes from here to Kane to attempt the case, which will be her last appearance in this state.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

The Countess Edmond de Pourtales died in Paris. She was born in 1834. She became famous at the court of Napoleon III, because of her beauty. She was known at the court as "Chiffonette" by reason of her elegance and taste in dress.

The Rev. Oliver Addison Kingsbury died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. David Pentress, at Memphis, Tenn. He was a son of Oliver Richmond Kingsbury, who was for many years treasurer of the American Tract society. He was born in New York city in 1830.

Dr. Charles S. Wainwright, a widely known physician and medical instructor, died at Englewood, N. J. He made a special study of the heart and lungs at European schools and then went to the University Medical school in Kansas City, Mo., as professor of internal medicine. He became dean of the college, resigning in 1902 to become an instructor in internal medicine at the Postgraduate hospital in New York.

PHILIP CIMO FACES A JURY

Murdering Marie Burzotto

JURY WAS DRAWN THURSDAY

District Attorney Outlines Commonwealth's Evidence — Brief History of the Shooting to Death of Pretty Italian Girl in Clearfield on Sunday March 8 of the Present Year.

The crime for which Philip Cimo is now being tried was the shooting to death of Marie Burzotto. Both these people were Italians. Cimo had been in this country for some time, but Marie came to Clearfield but a few weeks prior to her death. It was claimed by Cimo that Marie had promised to marry him before she came to the United States and that, relying on this promise, he had sent her money enough to pay her passage over the sea and her railroad fare to Clearfield. He had also expended considerable money in buying furniture with which he expected to furnish a home for himself and his wife.

Saw a Handsomer Man.

After Marie had arrived in New York it is said that she met other Italian men and that she saw one whom she thought she liked better than she did Cimo. At any rate, after she reached Clearfield she resolutely refused to marry Cimo. Philip pleaded with her to keep her troth, but in vain. She declined to give any reason for her change of mind, but marry Philip she would not.

That the refusal of the girl he loved and whom he believed had loved him while she was in Italy preyed upon the mind of Cimo, there is no doubt. Finally, on the fateful Sunday, March 8, 1914, Philip made a last appeal to the girl, and upon her persisting in rejecting his love, he shot her, the bullet entering her left side. She died of her wound Monday afternoon, March 9 at the hospital.

Tried to Commit Suicide.

The tragedy which took place in the home of Frank Cimo, a brother of Philip, on South Third street, in Clearfield, was aired before the coroner. After he had shot the girl Cimo fired a bullet into his neck, inflicting a wound which at first was thought to be mortal. He was taken to the hospital, where he recovered sufficiently to be removed to the county jail to await his trial.

It is probable that letters written to Cimo by the girl while she was still in Italy will be offered in evidence in the trial of Cimo. These letters are said to breathe a strong love for the present prisoner, and gave no indication of her changing her mind relative to the wedding so ardently desired by Cimo.

The Jury Selected.

The trial of Philip Cimo began late Thursday afternoon, the drawing of a jury occupying the time until court adjourned at 6 o'clock.

The following jurymen were selected to hear the evidence and render a verdict in accordance therewith:

J. P. Irwin, lumber dealer, Curwensville.

J. R. Scott, laborer, Penn.

E. B. McAllister, electrician, DuBois.

James Gray, laborer, Morris.

Austin Davis, farmer, Decatur.

David H. Hartman, farmer, Decatur.

John Bowman, farmer, Knox.

J. A. Adams, farmer, Beccaria.

Frank Leach, laborer, Curwensville.

Harry Leathers, roller, Curwensville.

William Valmont, laborer, Cooper.

Fred Schenck, laborer, Clearfield.

The district attorney is assisted by A. M. Liveright and W. I. Swoope, while the prisoner's interests are looked after by Messrs. Cole and Miller.

The Trial Begins.

This morning, after court was called, Attorney Welch addressed the jury, giving a brief history of the case and stating what the commonwealth expected to prove by its witnesses.

The first witness called was Civil Engineer E. W. Hess, who identified the map he had made of the scene of the shooting and described the situation of the interior of the Frank Cimo house. From a question put to Mr. Hess by Mr. Cole as to the situation of the house and the location of

Testimony of Physicians.

Both as a physician and as coroner Dr. J. I. Polham, of DuBois, and Dr. Waterworth, of Clearfield, who was called to the Cimo home to attend the wounded man and girl, explained the nature of the wounds sustained by Philip and Marie. Both physicians declared that the death of Marie Burzotto was caused by the bullet which had been fired into her body.

Mrs. Frank Cimo, wife of the man who lives in the Third street house in which the shooting occurred, was called to the stand shortly after 10 this morning and gave her story of what she knew of the affair.

Philip Cimo, freshly shaved, presented a much more creditable appearance this morning than he did on the day when he appeared in court to ask that counsel be assigned to defend him.

Frank Cimo and wife, Constable T. W. Moore, Joe Lehman and Mrs. Sadito were on the witness stand this morning and told what they knew of the shooting.

STRIKERS AND GUARDS SURRENDER ARMS

No More Disorder Expected in Colorado Mines.

Trinidad, Colo., May 8.—Nine officials at Tabasco, Berwind, Hastings, Delagun, Forbes, Huertano and Aguilar, practically all the mines in the Ludlow district, were notified by the executive officers of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company and the Victor American Fuel company to deliver up all arms on their premises to the federal troops upon demand. The guns had been stacked, the mine officers said, since the arrival of federal troops at the several properties and the guards discharged from further duty.

Colonel Lockett, in command of the federal troops in this district, had expected to complete the disarmament of mine guards in Las Animas and Huertano counties, but owing to the delayed arrival of a portion of the Eleventh cavalry regiment from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., it was thought probable the completion of this work would not be reached for another day. Immediately following will come the proclamation to the strikers setting forth the place and time to deliver their arms to the federal authorities.

The number of guns in possession of the strikers is variously estimated at from 500 to 1,200. The mine owners were said to have possessed eight machine guns and an unknown number of rifles and small arms.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLER CAUGHT

Held in Washington Charged With $24,000 Theft by New York Firm.

Washington, May 8.—A police chase across half the continent ended here in the arrest of Sidney B. Harrison, thirty-three years old, charged with embezzling $24,000 while local manager for N. L. Carpenter & Co., New York, stock brokers.

He denied the charge, but the police said he admitted eluding officers at Pittsburgh and St. Louis since he was captured on Dec. 19.

Harrison was located at Virginia Village, across the Potomac river, hauled out of bed and hustled to Washington without use of requisition papers. He professed ignorance of the whereabouts of Alice E. Malone, his assistant, who disappeared simultaneously with him and who is charged with embezzling $8,000.

O'SHAUGHNESSY IN CAPITAL.

Charge Sees Bryan and May Confer With Mediators.

Washington, May 8.—Charge d'Affaires Nelson O'Shaughnessy of the United States embassy in the City of Mexico arrived here. No arrangements had been made for him to see President Wilson, whose time was occupied with the wedding of his daughter, Miss Eleanor Wilson, to Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy conferred with Bryan and may call upon the mediators later in the week.

REBEL VICTORIES CHEER PRESIDENT

Sees Entire Northern Mexico
In Constitutionalists' Hands.

HUERTA GROWING WEAKER.

Reports From Mexico City Show That His Rule Is Rapidly Crumbling. United States Peace Envoys Not Selected, Although Many Names Have Been Suggested.

Washington, May 8.—Reports of almost continuous Constitutional success in northern Mexico cleared the atmosphere materially so far as the United States is concerned.

The president and his advisers believe that before the A. B. C. mediators begin their work at Niagara Falls, Ont., Carranza will hold the entire north. They are equally confident that so soon as this condition is brought about Huerta will either eliminate himself or be eliminated by the men who in the past have supported him.

If Huerta can be eliminated there is not an official here familiar with the entire Mexican situation who doubts that a common ground could be quickly found on which all of the warring factions in Mexico would be brought together.

Score Considered as Envoys.

Meanwhile the administration is carefully considering its representation at the Niagara Falls conference. Fully a score of names have been suggested to the president. However, until it is definitely settled whether there is to be one or three representatives a selection will not be made.

At present it is considered almost certain that if Secretary Lane of the interior can arrange the business of his office he will be chosen. Lane has been a strenuous advocate of quick action with Mexico, having insisted all along that Huerta was "bluffing in every move" and that he would get out in a hurry if his bluff was "called."

The mediators have decided that there is little more they can do until they get to Canada. They have soundly out Huerta and his representatives

THE CRIMINAL LIST

End of Trials of Cases and Jurors Sent Home.

The jury in the case in which Tom Daley was tried for the alleged robbery of a Curwensville store returned a verdict of not guilty yesterday afternoon. Daley is held on another indictment of a similar character on information of a Graupman merchant.

The grand jury ignored the bill of indictment against William Goss, accused of maintaining a disorderly house at his Third street bowling alley. County for costs.

RESCUE SHIP LANDS SURVIVORS AT BOSTON

Explosion on Columbian Did Not Come From Boilers.

Boston, May 8.—The Cunard liner Franconia, bringing thirteen survivors and the body of Chief Steward Matthews of the ill-fated Leyland liner Columbian, burned at sea off Cape Race, docked at the Cunard piers in East Boston.

Most of those rescued were in a serious condition from burns and exposure and have been under the care of the Franconia's hospital staff since being picked up.

Nothing has yet been heard from the third boat, containing the first and second officers of the Columbian and seventeen men, which was the first boat to be put overboard from the burning ship. Search is still being kept up for the frail craft by several steamships, but the weather off Cape Race and Sabie Island is foggy and thick, and the fate of the men is problematical.

Most of those rescued were foreigners and unable to speak English, but Wireless Operators James Drobun and Thomas Connor declared the fire burst upon them suddenly just at midnight on Sunday night. In their opinion the first explosion was caused by spontaneous combustion.

Only Fifty Guests at Fourteenth
White House Wedding.

HONEYMOON PLANS SECRET.

Ceremony Performed in Historic Blue Room, Thus Breaking Century Old Custom—All Other Weddings Held in East Room—Bride Her Father's Chum—Many Handsome Gifts.

Washington, May 8.—Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the president and the second bride of the Wilson administration's first fourteen months of tenure, was married at 6 o'clock last evening to Secretary of the Treasury William Gibbs McAdoo.

The ceremony was performed in the historic blue room of the White House, the apartment usually set aside for the exclusively ceremonial functions of an official or semi-official character. Miss Eleanor was the first daughter of a president to be married in the blue room. All others heretofore have been wed in the lofty and more commodious east room.

The reason for holding the wedding in the smaller room was that it was semiprivate in character. The smallest wedding company ever gathered in the White House—there were less than fifty persons present—was the reason for the change from this century old practice.

Bride Enters With Her Father.

The bride entered the room prepared for the wedding ceremony on the arm of her father. She was preceded by her two sisters, Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the president, attending her as maid of honor, and Mrs. Frances Bowles Sayre as matron of honor.

Miss Wilson's wedding gown was of ivory satin embellished with rare old point lace. The bodice was of draped effect of the satin made in surplice fashion, with a V shaped neck finished with folds of white tulle. The sleeves were of long mousseline lace and also of tulle. The lace was draped gracefully over the right shoulder to the left side at the waist line, where it

Steel Vessel Total Loss in Waters of Lake Erie.

Erie, Pa., May 8.—The steel freight steamship City of Rome, Buffalo to Toledo, was burned to the water's edge off Ripley, N. Y.

The crew escaped in boats.

The fire was discovered between decks by John McManama, mate, of Cleveland, and all hands were summoned to fight the flames, which gained rapid headway and soon were beyond control. After two hours' struggle, in which the crew was hampered by the dense smoke and the heated deck plates, Captain William Dunn gave orders to beach the vessel. Thomas Cunningham of Milwaukee, the chief engineer, stuck to his post until the ship grounded on the soft sands of Ripley beach. The crew then made its way to shore in the lifeboats. The vessel is a total loss.

The City of Rome left Buffalo light for Toledo, where she was to load coal for Milwaukee. She was a steel steamship of 3,900 gross tons, 268 feet long and carried a crew of sixteen men. The vessel was owned by James Mitchell of Cleveland.

Will Hold May Jubilee.

The Willing Helpers of the Lutheran church will hold a May Jubilee this and tomorrow evenings. Open to night at 5 p. m.; tomorrow at 3 p. m. All kinds of articles will be sold. Supper tonight, 25 cents. Japanese tea and cake tomorrow night.

President Kerr's Stand on the Water Works Proposition

Editor the Progress:

This letter is written to correct misstatements made in your issue of May 7, concerning both council and the undersigned. In the first place, there was no action taken by council to indicate that it favored "taking the water company into court," and the writer believes that it does not favor such action. The water company has made such expensive and unsatisfactory proceeding entirely unnecessary by frankly opening its books to the committee of council, and by an offer to audit jointly with council, which council could not well refuse if it also wishes to deal fairly. The writer certainly does not favor or any such court procedure and did not make any statements which could have been so construed. In fact, all the statements made by the undersigned on this subject were exactly opposed to what you have credited to him in your article.

In justice to all parties concerned will you kindly give this equal prominence with your article of last night?

Yours very truly,
FREDERICK B. KERR.

TWO BOYS ROBBED BY TWO HOBOS

Tramps Came to Clearfield on
N. Y. C. Freight, but Escaped

While traveling on a freight train coming toward Clearfield Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock, two Polish boys were robbed by tramps. The scene of the robbery was near Birch Island, and the boys and the two tramps who robbed them were riding on Lake Shore No. 7, which arrived here at 6 o'clock Thursday evening.

On the train was a large number of tramps, and two of these attacked the Polish boys, robbing them of two watches and $7.00 in money. Word was sent to Clearfield to be on watch for the robbers, but the two men got off the train at Fulton's tunnel. When Chief of Police McHenry and his posse arrived at the N. Y. C. yards they found seventeen tramps stealing a ride. A search for the two robbers was futile. Later it was learned that the two men had come to Clearfield, but a close search of the yards and the brick yards, which lasted until 3 o'clock this morning failed to unearth the robbers.

MAKES A BIG HIT

Cormican Vaudeville Company Please Local Theatre Goers.

A mighty clever, clean show is the James Cormican Vaudeville company at the new opera house, which opened its three nights' engagement last night to a large audience. The show opens with Miss Mary Balcar and company in the comedy act, "The Fall Guy" which was well received.

The cute little lady Miss Bertha Ness, was the musical part of the bill. She made a big impression with her wide talents. Mr. Cormican appeared in "The Unexpected," a bright one-act comedy. His act was a distinct hit.

Henry Roquemore, completed a well balanced bill of vaudeville, in a singing and talking act, which was given a big reception. Tonight, tomorrow matinee and tomorrow evening, the Cormican players will be seen in different acts. Entire program will be changed each show.

Who Was Daffydowndilly?

Mother Goose, like all world poets, never told half she knew. Poetess laureate of the English speaking nursery, her most complete achievements in rhyme are yet of an incompleteness that insure us against satiety. In those shreds and patches of verse, those isolated couplets and quatrains suggesting so much and saying so little, we perceive the promise of that perfected art foreshadowed in the unfinished tales of a Dickens and a Stevenson. Rudyard Kipling, deliberately fashioning metrical fragments for preludes to his Indian tales, struck a note seldom sustained in his completed compositions.

Who was Daffydowndilly, and what did she do when she came to town? Was Jumping Joan flesh, fairy or symbol? Would we laugh or cry did we understand the fantastic apparition of Banbury Cross? Why did Margery Daw sell her bed to lie upon straw, and was there not something behind the appearance of her purely eccentric depravity?—W. T. Varied in Century.

YEAR'S REPORT OF THE Y.M.C.A.

Interesting Data Relative to the Physical Department Gave Opportunity to Boys and Girls to Develop Their Muscles and Exercise Their Skill—Large Attendance at Religious Meetings—Financial Condition.

The annual report of the Young Men's Christian association of Clearfield, issued by General Secretary Kester contains much information of great interest to the friends of the institution. It also shows that the association is in need of funds with which to liquidate debts and carry on the activities of the coming year.

A CURFEW NEEDED

Children Misconduct Themselves on Street at Night.

Editor of Progress:—I have noticed in your paper lately articles relating to the need of a curfew law in Clearfield. I wish to say that if not a curfew law at least an officer or two are needed in the West End to maintain order. One evening lately several ladies and young men took advantage of the nice weather to take a walk after church. They went through East End and walked out the state road to the tile plant, when some boys, about 11 and 12 years of age who were following them, started calling the most insulting things possible after them. Is it the fault of the parents? Do the boys become accustomed to such talk in the homes. May 7.

WHY?

Why is the gossip permitted to destroy the character of other people without being stricken down for
her wickedness?

Good evening! If thy neighbor's
hen offend thee pluck her head off

CURFEW LAW NEEDED.

Citizens who keep in touch with
conditions in Clearfield are of the opinion that a curfew law is badly needed in this town. Judging from the large number of children of tender age who roam the streets at late
as eleven o'clock at night, often
mingling with older persons from
whom they imbibed lessons of a harmful nature, a curfew law to replace
the careless authority of parents, is
badly needed.

There is scarcely a night of the
week upon which crowds of small
boys are not to be seen on the street.
Some of these boys are in bad company and unless some restraining
guardianship is thrown about them
they will eventually become degen-
erates. Listening to the obscene language of older persons and learning
to swear and use foul language the
education of the small boy in town
is not the kind which instructs in
good citizenship.

Parents of children whose ages
range from twelve to sixteen are apparently indifferent to the moral welfare of their sons. It is, therefore,
the duty of the municipal authorities
to act as the guardians of the young boys of Clearfield. Other towns and cities find that with a curfew
law in operation the boys and girls
are taught to have respect for regulations which are promulgated to save
them from moral ruin. With a curfew
law in force in Clearfield it would be possible for older citizens to pass
along the streets between the hours
of nine and eleven o'clock without
encountering crowds of youngsters en-
character.

BY WHAT METHOD?

Whether or not those citizens who
are opposed to having two expert ac-
countants, one employed by the water company and one by the borough, investigate the books and accounts of
the Clearfield Water company in order to ascertain the cost of construction of the works, would be satisfied
with the result of any proceeding in
the case cannot be told. The former
method of trying to learn the desired
facts would be more expeditious
than would legal proceedings which
would spread out over a number of years. Council, therefore wishes to avoid court proceedings if possible.

In the meantime, if borough council
can prevent the water company in installing meters in the homes of the
people, such action would be even
more beneficial to water consumers
than would municipal ownership of the water plant. Whether or not the water company is upon the plan to
install meters costing from forty to
fifty thousand dollars in order to increase the item of operation of the
plant, the proposition to do so will
have its effect upon the minds of the taxpayers when they come to vote in favor of the borough acquiring the
plant.

With the prospect that Colonel
Roosevelt will visit Clearfield on the Fourth of July it is incumbent upon
the citizens to begin preparing to
pay honor to the distinguished guest.

Doesn't seem as if so many dogs
had been killed this spring, does it?

No change that the railroads might
make in their schedules would give Clearfield worse passenger train service than the town now enjoys.

However, there are some people in
this town who have not yet cleaned
up their premises.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers
you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your
back feels sore, don't get scared and
proceed to load your stomach with a
lot of drugs that excite the kidneys
and irritate the entire urinary tract.
Keep your kidneys clean like you
keep your bowels clean, by flushing
them with a mild, harmless salts
which removes the body's urinous
waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 gallons of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance
of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't
drink too much, also get from any
pharmacist about four ounces of Jad
Salt. Take a tablespoonful in a glass
of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys
will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and
lemon juice, combined with lithia, and
has been used for generations to clean
and stimulate clogged kidneys, also
to neutralize the acids in urine so
it is no longer a source of irritation,
thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salt is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent
lithia water drink which everyone
should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try
this also keep up the water drinking
and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and
backache.

HON. EMORY A. WALLING

Candidate is a Great Lawyer and
a Great Judge.

While practicing law at Erie, Hon.
Emory A. Walling became known as one of the leading attorneys in his
part of the state. No one stood higher or had a more extensive practice.
Selhom has a candidate for judicial
office been able to present such a record at the bar as can Judge Wall-

ing. And his seventeen years of service as president judge of the Erie
district has given him a reputation
and record equal to any in the commonwealth.

So the north part of the state, being at present without a representative in that court, presents Emory A.
Walling as its candidate for judge of
supreme court, and in so doing calls
attention to the fact that he is both
a great lawyer and a great judge.—Adv.

MISS WILSON WEDS MR. McADOO

was gathered up with a spray of orange blossoms. The bride continued as a border of the long transparent tulle of tulle. The train which was of satin, was more than three yards long. Miss Wilson wore a veil with a wreath of orange blossoms and a piquante cap of lace upon which the veil was draped. She carried a bouquet of orange blossoms, orchids and lilies of the valley.
Mrs Sayre wore a gown of soft pink tulle, with paillettes and a bolice of tulle to match and a lace ruff. Miss Margaret Wilson wore a similar costume in a delicate shade of blue. Both wore hats to match their gowns, which were trimmed with roses and broad, black velvet ribbons.
The approach of the wedding party was heralded by the Lohengrin wedding march played by the sextet jacketed marine band assembled in the entrance hall.
President Wilson wore a simple evening dress as did all the other civilian men members of the wedding party and the guests. The ushers, who were members of the president's military and naval staff appeared in full dress uniform.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev Sylvanus Beach, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Princeton N J. Dr Cary T Grayson, naval aid to the president, attended. Secretary McAdoo is best man.

Immediately after the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served to the wedding party and guests in the state dining room, after which the pair departed for their honeymoon.

The wedding gifts for the Wilson-McAdoo wedding were numerous and elaborate. Among the principal presents received by the bride were the beautiful pearl necklace, the gift of the groom, which she wore at the wedding, and many dainty bits of feminine furnishings, which her intimate friends made with their own hands.

Rich Gifts From Congress.

From the United States senate then came a beautiful gold bracelet set with diamonds selected by Senator Martine as chairman of the donation committee. The house of representatives gave a superb silver service, with thirty and two silver and gold candelabra. The members of the president's cabinet sent a set of twelve heavy response silver dinner service plates with a huge tray. From members of the diplomatic corps and from the higher officers of the army and from the significant committee of the United States came some other presents, but the way was not so long as the list of the first Wilson wedding. The vice president and Mrs. Ashland Wilson, the distinguished guests.

Miss Edith Wilson, youngest daughter of the president, has been known always as the slightly mischievous member of the family. She has been more the companion of her father than of the other daughters. The president has a sense of humor and a love of good puns, and she has been found in the family. He found a witty and a complete in the brief seasons which he has spared himself for getting away from the cares of his university, his state and the nation.

What Is Instinct?

Instinct is a generic term comprising all those impulses of mind which lead to the conscious performance of actions that are adaptive in character but pursued without necessary knowledge of the relation between the means employed and the ends attained. It is hardly necessary to remark that sometimes instinct comes so close to reason that it is almost impossible to distinguish between them. New York American Renewed Appeals From Oil Men.

Renewed appeals have been received by the state department from the oil companies doing business in the Tampico field asking for protection of their property. Secretary Bryan is a result has communicated with Carrizis again urging the necessity of conducting no offensive operation in the vicinity of the oil wells and also suggesting that the storage tanks be protected as much as possible.

Admiral Mayo, through Admiral Bridget, reported information transmitted to him of a plan of the Constitutionalists to burn the storage tanks in an effort to force the federal gunboats to steam from the river, and Bryan has called the attention of the Constitutionalists to the fact that such action is prohibited by the rules for civilized warfare.

The Label in Every Clothcraft Coat, or Signed Garment in the Package

Drop in at the Clothcraft Store and try on one of the models of "5130". You will probably find an advertisement of the local dealer in the paper you read. If not, we shall be glad to send you a note of personal introduction.

Newsline write us for the new Spring Style Book and a sample of the cloth used in No. 5130.

The little tailor of the story books, sitting cross-legged on his bench, snipped and stitched and pressed—making a thousand notions to do what could better be done by a hundred, and never doing the same thing twice in the same way.

He never bothered himself with the question of whether or not his clothes were better and better clothes with time.

Did you know before why we sell Clothcraft Clothes?

You have likely seen this ad, of which we produce a part, in The Saturday Evening Post or one of the leading Farm Papers.

This is in many ways one of the most remarkable clothing advertisements that have ever appeared, as it tells cold, hard facts, about the making of clothes, which have never been publicly told before.

We know how important the Scientific tailoring of Clothcraft Clothes is and why no other clothes have ever met with such success. Naturally we want you to know these facts, as it proves our judgment in offering this line to you.

To our store policy of giving you the best values of the markets, Clothcraft Clothes link up perfectly, whether it is the line of beautiful varied patterns at $10 to $20 or the No. 5130 Blue Serge Special at $15.

There is one thing that we can add to this, in clothing or any of the things men wear, we do more than sell you goods. We give you service, the benefit of our knowledge of correct things for men.

Whatever we sell must give satisfaction; the sale is not complete until this is the fact.

When may we serve you?

WANT MYSTERY SOLVED

Kane Citizens Ask "Ita" to Explain Boy's Disappearance.

During the past winter "Ita", the mentalist, appeared at the Temple theatre, Kane, Pa. Kane was slow to appreciate what remarkable things this young woman can do, and as a result after she left for her next town they got together and decided that she would be the proper person to unravel the mysterious disappearance of four years ago of the little Adams boy. A huge petition signed by over 500 male voters, and the town's best citizens was sent to "Ita" at Kittanning, by a committee, who urged that she return to Kane and undertake the case. This petition will be displayed at the opera house next Monday and shows that if a town like Kane shows this much appreciation of Ita's work her demonstrations at the local opera house next week will be well worth watching. Ita goes from here to Kane to attempt the case, which will be her last appearance in this state.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

The Countess Edmond de Pourtales died in Paris. She was born in 1834. She became famous at the court of Napoleon III, because of her beauty. She was known at the court as "Chiffonette" by reason of her elegance and taste in dress.

Dr. Charles S. Wainwright, a widely known physician and medical instructor, died at Englewood, N. J. He made a special study of the heart and lungs at European schools and then went to the University Medical school in Kansas City, Mo., as professor of internal medicine. He became dean of the college, resigning in 1902 to become an instructor in internal medicine at the Postgraduate hospital in New York.
